Prof. (Dr.) Jagatpati Sarkar is a Kolkata-based scholar, Indologist, and library science specialist known for his work on manuscriptology, epigraphy, and the history of science in India. While a formal standalone CV document is not publicly hosted online, his academic and professional profile can be compiled from institutional records and published biographical notes.

Education & Qualifications

- Ph.D. Degree. Earned from Jadavpur University, Kolkata, in 2000.
- Master of Arts in Sanskrit. Completed at the University of Burdwan with a specialization in Epigraphy.
- Library and Information Science. Completed specialized training and qualifications at Rabindra Bharati University, Kolkata.

Career & Academic Roles

- Senior Cataloguer (1985–Present). Served for decades at The Asiatic Society, Kolkata, coordinating library, museum, and archival training programs.
- Coordinator, Manuscript Resource Centre. Led the Asiatic Society Manuscript Resource Centre operating under the National Mission for Manuscripts, New Delhi.
- Guest Professor. Associated with the Department of Library and Information Science at Rabindra Bharati University.
- Early Library Career (1981). Began his professional library work at the Sanskrita Sahitya Parishad Library in Kolkata.

Research Areas & Notable Publications

- Primary Research Focus. Specializes in ancient Indian history and culture (3rd century B.C. to 7th century A.D.), epigraphy, manuscript conservation, and indigenous scientific traditions.
- Books Authored & Edited. Published Studies in History and History of Science (Kaveri Books, 2018/2019), Siddhant Sundarah (co-authored with Somenath Chatterjee), and A Dictionary of Scientific Terms On Kalidasa Literature.
- Academic Papers. Contributed articles to leading Indian journals, including the Journal of the Asiatic Society and the Bulletin of the Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture.